

A NEW DAY FOR FAMILIES

CHILDCARE BC

The new Affordable Child Care Benefit is helping more families with the cost of child care. Now, households earning up to $111,000 (or more with deductions) may be eligible for savings of up to $1,250 a month per child. Benefit amounts are determined by factors like family size, type of child care and income.

You may be eligible if:

- ▶ You're a resident of B.C. and a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, Convention refugee or person in need of protection.
- ▶ Your family income is less than $111,000 (or more with deductions).
- ▶ You require care as you're working, looking for work, attending school, in an employment program, living with a medical condition that interferes with your ability to care for your child – or your child is registered in licensed preschool.

Use the online estimator to see if you're eligible for savings, and apply online at gov.bc.ca/affordablechildcarebenefit
