

OPENING

NENQAYNI WELLNESS CENTRE SOCIETY BOARD DIRECTOR

Seeking a Board Director for the Nenqayni Wellness Centre Society

The Nenqayni Wellness Centre Society (“the Society”) is a residential alcohol and drug treatment centre, funded by First Nations Health Authority, providing holistic healing to First Nations and Inuit youth, families and communities in a safe and secure environment. The Society’s Mobile Treatment Program extends therapeutic services to communities in a safe and secure environment. The members of the society are the Chiefs of the 15 bands in the Cariboo-Chilcotin District including the Xat’sull First Nation.

The Society has six Directors, with two from each of the following three First Nations: southern Carrier, Chilcotin, and Northern Shuswap. One of the Shuswap Directors will be from the Xat’sull First Nation, on whose land Nenqayni is located. The term of office of each Director is 2 years from the date of the Annual General Meeting, at which that Director was appointed. A Director may be appointed for 1 or more terms.

The primary responsibility of the Board of Directors is to ensure the affairs of Nenqayni are conducted according to its Constitution and By-laws, and Society Act, RSBC 2014 in a manner that fulfills the purposes of the organization, as a nationally recognized substance abuse treatment centre.

Qualifications

- is a full-time resident of the Xat’sull First Nation;
- 19 years or older;
- must not be living in the same household as a permanent Nenqayni staff member;
- must not be a person prohibited by the By-laws of Nenqayni;
- must not use alcohol or drugs;
- demonstrable experience in a policy-governance model and in overseeing senior management via this model;
- committed to the Nenqayni Wellness Centre Society and have a genuine interest in working to advance the Society’s economic development goals;
- excellent communication skills, including the ability to build effective relationships with stakeholders, shareholders, government, and senior management;
- financial competency and the ability to read and interpret financial statements is an asset; and
- experience working with First Nations is an asset.

Short-listed candidates will be asked to provide three professional references. Appointees must consent to a Police Information Check.
