

CHILD AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT WORKER

Type of Position: Full-time, temporary

About the Position:

Xat'sull First Nation (XFN), a dynamic Indigenous community, is seeking a dedicated and detail-oriented Child and Family Engagement Worker to join our team. Located near the vibrant city of Williams Lake, our Nation is deeply rooted in our rich heritage, culture, and breathtaking natural surroundings. With a population of 125 band members residing on-reserve and 300 off-reserve, our Nation continues to grow and prosper.

The Child and Family Engagement Worker supports the successful operations of Xat'sull First Nation's Child and Family Services program in alignment with the organization's vision, objectives, and strategic direction. The role is focused on community engagement, outreach, and ensuring the integration of community feedback into the child and family jurisdiction work under the Act respecting First Nations, Inuit and M tis children, youth, and families (previously Bill C-92). The Engagement Worker will play a key role in facilitating communication between the community and the Child and Family Jurisdiction Transition Team, helping to ensure that the jurisdiction transition reflects the needs and values of Xat'sull members. This role involves regular interaction with diverse community groups, and it requires strong communication, organizational, and relationship-building skills.
