

Call for Applications: Child & Family Jurisdiction Working Group

Xats'ull First Nation is seeking community members to join the Child & Family Jurisdiction Working Group. This group will help guide how we exercise our jurisdiction and inherent rights over the care and wellbeing of our children and families.

We are looking for community members who:

- Are passionate about children, family, and community wellness
- Can commit to regular working group meetings and sessions
- Want to be part of building a system that reflects our values and community vision

Please note: There are a limited number of positions available.

Working group members will be compensated for their time by honoraria.

We hope to bring together a diverse group of members- including youth, Elders, parents, caregivers, and members living both in the community and away from home. All voices are valued.

To apply: Please submit a short letter of interest explaining why you'd like to join the working group and any experience or perspectives you bring.

Deadline to apply: June 13, 2025

Submit to: Ashley Rankin Email: health@xatsull.com

In Person: Community Services Reception